MEMORANDUM OF TRANSMITTAL

to
DIRECTOR GENERAL OF AIR DEVELOPMENT, DEPARTMENT OF RECONSTRUCTION
and
AIR TRANSPORT BOARD

INTRODUCTORY

This report is the result of a survey performed, at the various points indicated, by the Air Development Branch of the Department of Reconstruction in co-operation with the Economic Division of the Air Transport Board. The travel pattern data was obtained from hotel registrations, and wherever possible the 1939 records were examined at the hotels considered as catering to the better class of travel. In all cases registrations of members of the Armed Forces were excluded from the survey, as well as persons considered to be "local residents", i.e., registrants from towns or villages within a radius of 25 miles from the centre under review.

Under no circumstances should the hotel registration figures shown in this report be considered as the total traffic interchanged between any two communities reported herein. The purpose of the survey is to determine the travel pattern, and not the quantum of traffic.

ECONOMIC CHARACTERISTICS

The 20 items listed in this statement were selected as being indicative of the business activity of a community. The items of greatest importance are naturally Retail Sales, Wholesale Net Sales, Postal Revenue and Average Earnings per Wage Earner. A perusal, for example, of the volume of wholesale transactions clearly shows which localities are trade areas within a definite geographical district. These economic characteristics should be helpful in the selection of localities which are most likely to support and maintain on a sound economic basis the establishment of airline services.

The information compiled for this table was obtained from publications and records of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. It will be noted that an attempt was made to reproduce information representative of pre-war conditions wherever possible. Combined population of the cities and of the areas within a 25-mile radius from the selected centres are shown, as well as the population of the point of survey, since it is axiomatic that an airport draws upon not only the city which it serves but also the population within a very definite radius. The recognized radius is 25 miles from the airport itself. In cases where there is over-lapping between the population tributary to a centre with that of an adjacent locality, the territory, with its population, is allocated as accurately as possible to its proper gravitating centre.

SURFACE TRANSPORTATION

A diagram of the frequency of surface transportation has been superimposed on a geographical outline map of the area under review. It will be noted that rail, highway and water services are indicated, and in all cases the services are for the year 1939. It was thought advisable not to consider the wartime services performed by the various transportation agencies, as in a great many cases wartime controls reduced the schedules of inter-urban services. It is anticipated that the frequency of services prevailing in the year 1939 will give a more accurate indication of their post-war status. Services having a frequency less than daily except Sunday are not included in the diagrammatic presentation unless they are the only services operated, in which case they are covered by proper labelling.

TABLE OF AREA TRAVEL PATTERN

The information shown in this statement is the result of the hotel registration survey for a 12-month period of the selected localities within a specified area. The data presented therein is indicative of the travel pattern between communities as it includes not only the registrations at specified points but also the registrations from that point; as mentioned above, this data is not indicative of the density of traffic. The figures reported on this statement were taken direct from the individual tables of the Distribution of Hotel Registrations shown elsewhere in this report.

The usefulness of this table is quite apparent as it definitely establishes the travel pattern, not only between communities, but also between each community and its trade centre area.

MAPS OF TRAVEL PATTERN

A map has been drawn for each specified centre, showing the geographical distribution of the total hotel registrations. It should be pointed out that the total registrations for any specified point, as already indicated, exclude members of the Armed Forces, local residents, and registrants living within a 25-mile radius. On the other hand, the total shown for each city includes the registrations of guests whose point of origin lies within a 25-mile radius of that point.

All figures shown are actual registrations over a 12-month period, and are not the result of sampling.

TABLES OF DISTRIBUTION OF HOTEL REGISTRATIONS

Following each travel pattern map will be found a table showing the distribution, on a percentage basis, of the registrations shown on the map. The distribution is shown for provincial totals as well as for the grand total.

BUSINESS TRAVEL AND EMPLOYMENT

Below the table of distribution of hotel registrations, general notes are given on business travel and employment at each specified centre. These notes are the results of personal contacts between survey personnel and Boards of Trade, Chambers of Commerce, bank managers, hotel managers, and senior executives of business concerns. It will be noted that the summary paragraphs describe company travel and functions, convention trade, and post-war employment. The information contained therein should be valuable in estimating the anticipated steady flow of air traffic potential.

HOTEL REGISTRATIONS DISTRIBUTED BY DESTINATION POINTS

These tables show the travel destinations of residents for each locality surveyed. Sufficient geographical coverage was made by the survey to enable the preparation of this data which indicates the outgoing traffic instead of the incoming traffic already discussed under Distribution of Hotel Registrations. The figures shown opposite each centre, or destination point, are actual, but the specified centre travel to provinces outside the area is based on the percent of distribution of the incoming travel. It should be noted also that travel to the United States and other foreign countries has been estimated at 10 percent of the incoming traffic; no reliable data is available to check the accuracy of this assumption. This relationship is based on the population of Canada with that of the United States of America.

This data should be of considerable assistance in obtaining a proper distribution of the outgoing travel from any specified centre.

AIRLINE TRAFFIC WITHIN AREA

Whenever available, airline data obtained from the company operating the services is shown on geographical diagrams. It will be noted that the information relates first of all to the directional density of traffic between the points served and also the origin and distribution of airline traffic for each point served by the carrier. The data is presented for one summer month and one winter month.

REGISTRATIONS OF UNITED STATES ORIGIN

This table and accompanying diagrams summarize by States the registrations into Eastern and Western Canada of United States residents. They are the result of adding together the United States registrations for each point surveyed.

Respectfully submitted,

Directorate,
Air Development,
Ottawa, 1945.

BUSINESS TRAVEL AND EMPLOYMENTCOMPANY TRAVEL:-

The twelve foremost business concerns report an average of 40 trips per month in addition to the trips made by 9 steady travellers. Approximately 45% of the travel involves Maritime Points, 45% Central Canada and 10% Western Canada, Newfoundland and the United States.

On the basis of method of travel approximately 49% is by rail, 32% by automobile, 18% by plane and 3% by boat.

COMPANY FUNCTIONS:-

No company holds any regular functions although there are two companies reporting fairly regular visits of other company officials.

CONVENTION TRADE:-

No organization holds a regular convention but there was a pre-war average of 5 sporadic conventions annually. Twelve organizations hold sporadic conventions with a total attendance of 4,690.

POST-WAR EMPLOYMENT:-

With Canadian Car and Foundry Co. closing down and possible limitations on the work of Robb Engineering Works, the future is not bright for Amherst and more dependence must be placed on lumbering and fishing. Prospects for the tourist trade are more encouraging and 80% of N.S. tourists at least pass through the Amherst area.

The outlook for Sackville is better both for local business and Mount Allison University.

COMPANY TRAVEL:-

The eight foremost business concerns have a personnel of 31 which travel every month. In addition one company sends a traveller every two months to Montreal and Ottawa, and another company reports two trips per year to Vancouver. Approximately 20% of this travel is to Montreal, 70% to other Quebec and Maritime points; and 10% to other parts of Canada and the United States.

On the basis of method of travel approximately 2/3 is by train and 1/3 by car.

COMPANY FUNCTIONS:-

Four concerns hold company functions in Campbellton and two Campbellton firms hold semi-annual meetings in Montreal. In Campbellton approximately 17 meetings are held annually with an attendance of 107 people annually.

CONVENTION TRADE:-

Ten organizations hold sporadic conventions in Campbellton involving a total attendance of 760. There are three annual attractions involving a total attendance of 14,000.

POST-WAR EMPLOYMENT:-

Demand for lumber and lumber products ensures steady employment and some expansion but production has been somewhat hindered by a shortage of power and fuel.

The industries covered in Campbellton and in Dalhousie (16 miles away) indicated a rise from 5,112 employees in 1939 to 7,405 in 1945 with an anticipated number of over 6,500 in the post-war years. It must be remembered that those figures are subject to extremely marked seasonal variation.

The activity of Campbellton as a railway divisional centre and its possibilities for the tourist trade should be considered in the estimation of future employment levels.

COMPANY TRAVEL:-

The seven foremost business concerns have a personnel of 23 which travel every month. Approximately 44% of this travel is limited to Prince Edward Island, 24% involves Nova Scotia and New Brunswick and 32% covers points as far west as Montreal, Ottawa and Toronto, and as far south as Virginia, U.S.A.

On the basis of method of travel, approximately 42% is by car and bus, 37% by rail and 21% by plane.

COMPANY FUNCTIONS:-

Six concerns hold company functions in Charlottetown. These are of a local and provincial nature. One small company meeting is held weekly and the other five companies hold 11 meetings in all during the year. The total annual attendance of the six concerns is 703.

CONVENTION TRADE:-

There are six annual conventions with an attendance of 3,130 and ten sporadic conventions. In addition five local attractions draw an annual attendance of 75,200.

POST-WAR EMPLOYMENT:-

Charlottetown and the surrounding area is almost wholly dependent on agriculture and fishing. Floor prices for these primary products should result in an improvement of conditions over 1939. The industries covered indicated a rise in employment from 350 in 1939 to 635 in 1945 but this is expected to drop to 449 as a result of a decline in naval repairs.

Because of favourable climate, good fishing and excellent beaches, tourist trade is expected to play a very significant part in its post-war economy.

BUSINESS TRAVEL AND EMPLOYMENT

COMPANY TRAVEL:-

Four business concerns have a personnel of 6 which travel every month. Two-thirds of this travel involves Halifax and Montreal and one-third covers the Maritimes with some trips as far west as Toronto and as far south as New York.

On the basis of method of travel approximately 50% is by rail, 33% by air and 17% by car.

COMPANY FUNCTIONS:-

One company function involving an annual attendance of 200 is held in Kentville and no company function is held in Middleton.

CONVENTION TRADE:-

No conventions are held in Middleton but three annual conventions with an attendance of 242 are held in Kentville as well as four sporadic conventions with an attendance of 331.

POST-WAR EMPLOYMENT:-

The immediate outlook is gloomy because of the failure of the fruit crop upon which nearly all economic activity depends. These two places will need assistance during the winter months. There is a very marked seasonal influence in nearly all employment here. The steady demand for lumber and the growth of tourist trade will somewhat offset the failure of the apple crop.

COMPANY TRAVEL:-

The nine foremost business concerns have a personnel of 15 which travel every month but much of this travelling is irregular because of seasonal factors. About 40% of this travel involves trips to Montreal and Toronto, about 40% to Maritime points and 20% Western Canadian Cities and New York and Boston.

About 45% of the above travel is to be by automobile, 35% by train and 20% by air.

COMPANY FUNCTIONS:-

Only one important concern holds significant functions in Summerside and this is the Canadian Fox Breeders Association which holds national meetings 4-6 times a year with an annual attendance of only 30.

CONVENTION TRADE:-

One organization holds an annual convention involving 100 people and seven organizations with a total of 785 hold sporadic conventions.

In addition 3 local attractions held annually involve a total attendance of 11,800.

POST-WAR EMPLOYMENT:-

The firms covered employed only 276 in 1939 and 457 in 1945. They expect to maintain employment in the post-war period.

The chief attraction for the future lies in the tourist trade. There are excellent beaches and golf courses but the hotels, railway services and ferry services have drawn much local criticism.

COMPANY TRAVEL:-

One thousand two hundred and twenty-nine business concerns have a personnel of 2,851 which travel every month. Approximately 23% of this travel involves Toronto, 21% New York, 11% Ottawa, 4% Winnipeg, 4% Vancouver, 29% other Canadian points and 8% other American points.

On the basis of method of travel, approximately 49% is by train, 33% by air and 18% by car.

COMPANY FUNCTIONS:-

Four hundred and forty-one firms reported holding 331 company functions in Montreal.

POST-WAR EMPLOYMENT:-

The firms covered employed 68,847 in 1939, 100,981 in 1945 and expect to employ 98,880 in the post-war period. The long run prospect for employment in Montreal is good. There is a wide diversity of gainful occupations and expansion in one place will offset declines elsewhere. Similarly the seasonal peak of employment is less likely to be acute where several industries dovetail together. Finally there will be a demand for a wide variety of skill. There are certain dangers. A few industries - textiles, boots, railway rolling stock, electrical goods and tobacco - are dependent on the national market. Any failure in the regional economy in Quebec will have repercussions in Montreal. And there is a danger in the general persistent drift of young men and women from rural Quebec to this metropolitan centre.

COMPANY TRAVEL:-

The eight foremost business concerns have a personnel of 60 which travel every month. The frequency of travel varies from weekly to monthly trips. Approximately 75% is short distance recurring travel to Toronto, Montreal, and Ottawa; 15% to various other eastern cities; and 10% to western cities and the United States.

On the basis of method of travel, approximately 90% is by rail and 10% by other means. Rail travel is heavily weighted due to the fact that any air trip requires a prior rail or car trip to Montreal or Toronto.

COMPANY FUNCTIONS:-

Only four concerns hold company functions in Cornwall. They are purely of a local nature, drawing on the Toronto-Montreal area. Approximately 25 such functions are held throughout the year and have a total yearly attendance of some 300 people.

CONVENTION TRADE:-

No organization holds any conventions in Cornwall at this date.

POST-WAR EMPLOYMENT:-

The industries of Cornwall were established in peace time on the basis of relatively cheap hydro electric power, and prior to the war supported a population of 12,000. Pre-war employment figures are not available but the industries covered in this survey indicated a minimum increase in post-war employment of 750 to 800, with a reasonable prospect of a 1,000 to 1,200 increase.

The above employment figures do not consider the future effect on industry and employment conditions if the St. Lawrence Waterways development is carried through. If this project is completed it will certainly be an important attraction for new industries to locate near the source of this cheap power.

BUSINESS TRAVEL AND EMPLOYMENTCOMPANY TRAVEL:-

Twenty business concerns have 31 personnel which travel every month and, in addition, report an average of 145 individual business trips per month. Approximately 75% of the travel is to Toronto, Montreal and principal Ontario cities; 15% to the United States, notably New York, Chicago and Detroit; 8% to Western Canada; and 2% to the Maritime Provinces. Approximately 55% of the travel is by rail, 40% by private car and 5% by plane. Rail and car travel is heavily weighted due to the relatively high frequency of trips to Toronto.

COMPANY FUNCTIONS:-

Twelve concerns hold company functions in Orillia and Barrie which are of a provincial, national and international nature. Approximately 16 such functions are held throughout the year and have a total attendance of 340 people.

Seven concerns hold company functions at other localities, usually Toronto and Montreal, with 17 people attending from Orillia and Barrie.

CONVENTION TRADE:-

No organization holds any conventions in Orillia or Barrie at this date.

POST-WAR EMPLOYMENT:-

Sixteen business concerns report employment of 1,540 in 1939; 3,340 in 1945; and anticipate a post-war employment of 2,280. The majority of industries are of a relatively stable character and indicate reasonable prospects of a 500-700 increase in employment as compared with the pre-war period.

This area is a centre point for tourist traffic to the Muskoka and Lake of Bays district. Normally, about 50% of the tourist trade originates in the United States and the remainder largely from the Toronto district. It is estimated that 90% of the tourists travel by private car.

CONVENTION TRADE:-

Eight organizations have held annual conventions in Moose Jaw with a total attendance of 865, and 5 organizations have held sporadic conventions with a total attendance of 230 people. Twelve are provincial organizations and one is a national organization.

POST-WAR EMPLOYMENT:-

War-time prosperity and resulting employment has been largely due to the increased income of the farmers rather than to any war industries. It is expected that any decrease in the general business level will be compensated by the establishment of new industries. Sixteen business concerns anticipate a post-war employment outlook substantially above the 1939 level.

COMPANY TRAVEL:-

The great majority of travel is by boat to Vancouver with most business concerns having weekly trips.

COMPANY FUNCTIONS:-

No company functions are held in Nanaimo.

CONVENTION TRADE:-

Approximately 10 conventions per year are held in Nanaimo. The total yearly attendance approximates 900 people drawn from the lower mainland of B.C.

POST-WAR EMPLOYMENT:-

The primary dependence of Nanaimo on coal mining is now becoming less significant and lumbering is becoming an industry of increasing importance. This, together with the fact that Nanaimo is a relatively important distributing point for Vancouver Island, should contribute towards more stable employment conditions.
